WAR KEPT UP BY LIES, SAYS LIEBKNECHT

Socialist Leader Defied

Government in Speech
On May Day.

NOW FACES DEATH

FOR HIGH TREASON

The following unconsored article, sent here by mail, to the first full account of the "May Day" bread riots which took place in the Imperial Palace grounds in Berlin on May 1, when Dr. Karl Liebknecht, the ultra radical Socialist leader, made a vitriolic attack on the Government. The speech, which is given below, lied to Dr. Liebknecht's arrest, the propriety of which was later made the subject of a heated debate in the Reichstag and that Dr. Liebknecht is to be tried by court-martial for high treason, the penalty for which is death.

Berlin, May 1, Very early in the morning—With three other comrades I reach Hortenslenstrasse, where Comrade Liebknecht opens the door himself. He is the stairs, ring his bell. Comrade Liebknecht opens the door himself. He is the speech of himself. He is the stairs, ring his bell. Comrade Liebknecht opens the door himself. The Lindfield, a four masted bark of $2.276 tons, had been 128 days at sea when on Friday, March 24, about eighty miles southwest of Fastnet, a submarine was sighted on the surface. The submarine approached and fifed two shots, of which one hit the bark's bowsprit.
